RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING ONE KIND ACT A DAY WEEK IN SALT LAKE CITY

WHEREAS, in partnership with The Semnani Family Foundation, Salt Lake City desires to celebrate and promote kindness with a campaign known as "One Kind Act A Day"; and

WHEREAS, now, more than ever, the world needs more kindness; and

WHEREAS, kindness can be as simple as a single smile, a thoughtful message to a friend, or just a small, unexpected gesture, but the effects have the power to change our lives and our world for the better; and

WHEREAS, one act of kindness can brighten a moment, lift someone's spirits, and turn a bad day into a good day; and

WHEREAS, kindness becomes contagious, as one small act of kindness can spark another small act of kindness; and

WHEREAS, we can all do something to make a difference in this world and especially in our closely knit community; and

WHEREAS, both the giver and the recipient benefit from daily acts of selflessness as the spirit of generosity has a way of gaining momentum and spreading from one person to another; and

WHEREAS, we encourage all to commit to one act of kindness every single day.

NOW THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED,

That the Salt Lake City Council and Mayor of Salt Lake City recognize the week of September 12, 2022 as "One Kind Act A Day" week in Salt Lake City in order to honor, recognize, and celebrate the inherent good in people, and to cultivate one of the most important gifts of all—our faith in humanity, and our belief in a better, kinder future for all people, all over the world.
